

through the fold
gerhard schultz

n listeners and up to $n + 1$ sections during each of the first n sections, everyone writes a description of as many things heard or observed as there are other listeners, in about as many, possibly n , words.

the next section begins when descriptions are exchanged.